MILLINERY.—I have just returned from the cities with a full line of the latest styles of fall and winter millinery and am daily receiving new goods. I call the attention of the ladies to my opening which will take place on next Friday and Saturday Oct. 31st and Nov. 1st. Thanking them for past patronage I solicit same. Prices low. Mrs. Kate Daddler.

DURING a recent engagement in Louisville, the Courier-Journal said of the Georgia Minstrels: "The performance was greatly enjoyed throughout. The jokes in the first part were above the average. It was a show to see the intense interest and abandonment to wild fun that marked everything that was said and done by the four men. None but a genuine negro can be a negro to the life. The voices in the first part were all rich and musical, and the chorus was a flood of melody. The olio was exceedingly interesting throughout."

THE Georgia Minstrels are under the management of respectable white men and no lady need fear of having her modesty shocked by any vulgarity on the stage.

WE are moving our stock to the new store room two doors above, where our customers and others will find us in the future, with the best goods for the lowest prices. Warren & Metcalf.

A LARGE brick vault is being built at the cemetery as a temporary repository for bodies, which would otherwise be compelled to be buried in bad weather. The need of it has been felt on many occasions.

PORTMANER B. G. ALFORD has sold to Peter Strub his house and lot for $2,600. W. P. Walton sold to the Farmers National Bank yesterday, the portion of his store room fronting on Lancaster street, 20x30 feet, for $1,750. The bank will at once proceed to fit up an elegant directors' room.

CIRCUIT Court was in session when Joe Hughes got to Taylor county and being immediately called upon to answer an indictment for horse stealing he pleaded guilty and was given three years in the penitentiary, which makes six he has to serve. By that time probably he will have decided to become a better man and do nothing further to disgrace a respectable family.

TWO MEN KILLED.—Monday night a train on the L. & N. killed a drunken man named Dean near Williamsburg and Tuesday night the South bound express mangled the body of William Barber, son of the Doctor, almost beyond recognition. The legs and arms were torn from the trunk, the skull crushed in and except for a part of the face, which was not disfigured, no one could have told who it was.

SHERIFF J. W. COMBS, of Perry, arrived here yesterday with Abner Everette, charged with the murder of Rebecca Barker, which occurred some three weeks ago, and Henderson Bush, charged with grand larceny, and turned them over to the jailer for safe keeping 'till the next term of the court in that county. Nearly all the mountain counties within reach of the Knoxville branch use our jail now, and while it is a big thing to the jailer, the pay of officers and guards transferring the prisoners back and forth must cost the State heavily. It takes three days to come through from Perry.

A PRETTY good crowd was present at the debate between the Congressional aspirants, Hon. J. B. McCreary and Capt. Jas. M. Sebastian, at this place, Tuesday, many coming to see what manner of man was he whom the republicans had put up to be knocked down. He is a much better looking man than we expected to see, being large and commanding in appearance and the direct opposite of the "little red pig." It was his time to lead in the discussion and he began by saying that the two great questions which had induced him to come forth from his retreat were "Protection to labor and the education of all the children in the land." He then went over the usual republican ground in favor of protection and tried to show that the high tariff had caused labor to be better paid in this country than anywhere on the globe. Although admitting that it was unconstitutional he was for the Blair bill to aid education, because the will of the people was greater than that time honored document itself. This is always the talk when his party wishes to over ride the constitution. He did not have a great deal to say about Mr. Blaine and when Gov. McCreary asked him if he would adopt Blaine's methods if he were elected to Congress he was as dumb as an oyster. Following in his lead the Governor showed by the facts and figures, the effect of the high protective tariff, how it took from the many to enrich the few and read from Mr. Hewitt to show that the wages of the workmen were less here than in other countries, when the difference in the prices of articles of consumption was considered. He was as much for the education of the masses as anybody could be but there was no constitutional authority for the Blair bill, besides the States could regulate the matter much better than by Federal interference. He made a sound, sensible democratic speech winding up with a handsome eulogy of our candidates and urging Lincoln to stand by her colors with 400 majority. In his reply Capt. Sebastian created somewhat of a laugh at his lack of knowledge of public men and affairs by saying that the Gov. had quoted "Fayette" Hewitt as authority and everybody knew that "Fayette" was a free trader. This and other like statements produced the impression that while the Captain was a clever and apparently nice gentleman he was badly posted on current political affairs and he will return to his mountain fastnesses after the 4th of November a wiser and sadder man. He tells an anecdote pretty well and can brag better than a jackass himself, all of which was highly appreciated by his colored hearers, who got up and left in a body as soon as he finished, without giving Gov. McCreary a chance to disabuse their minds of the Captain's fallacious propoitions.

Mrs. James Dudderar, of this county, boasts that she sold 82 pounds of butter from four cows last month.

MR. J. L. COGAR bought this week of Jno. O. Rogers 3,000 bushels of wheat at 67 cents.—[Midway Clipper.]

MR. J. W. SPALDING bought of Mr. Ben Spalding, of Lincoln, a short-horn bull calf, six months old, for $100.—[Sebanon Standard.]

JOE H. McALLISTER sold to Bohon and Stage 21 head 1,143 cattle at 5 cents. Same bought of Johnson, of Boyle, 20 good feeders at 5 cents.

At a sale of Government property at Harper's Ferry, the Potomac water power was sold for $25,100 and the Shehendoah water power for $8,100.

FOR SALE.—Four pairs of good horses, two pairs fine mules and a lot of dry and milch cows. Stock can be seen at R. R. Gentry's. F. J. Campbell.

Lehman Bros. shipped from here and Lancaster Wednesday a train load of cattle to go direct to Europe. This is the first through shipment from here.

Some New England Yankee has brought out a bill against his neighbor for rent of a bee pasture, which is fully as bad as Maj. Stigall charging and attempting to collect for the service of his rooster.

GEORGETOWN COURT.—About 600 cattle on sale, at prices ranging from $3.75 to $4.97 per cwt. Good horses brought fair prices. A large number of suckling mules sold at from $40 to $80 per head, according to quality.

Corn in the field sold in Warren county this week at $2.25 to $2.40 per barrel. Yearling mules $60 and McElwain & Crabb sold to Scroggins & Co., a car load of 16 to 17 hand; four to seven year old mules, for prices ranging from $160 to $200.

Wheat is lower in England than it has been in 104 years. Potatoes also are very low. Sugar is so cheap that refined grades sell at 4 cents, the lowest price since 1852, when the price was 4 1/2 cents. In 1884 the same grade was 16 cents a pound. The cause of depreciation is the vast increase of production in European colonies.

At the sale of James Crow yesterday, one 2 year-old Jack brought $776; 2 year-old mules $77.50 per head; 1 yearling mule $80; stock and fat hogs from 4 to 4 1/2; 2 year-old heifers $15.50 to $33.50; yearling steers $35; milk cows from $25 to $37; a thoroughbred bull calf $54; other short-horns belonging to R. H. Crow sold at moderate prices; hay $10 per stack; corn not sold; 400 gallons of home-made wine sold at $1.30 per gallon. There was a good crowd but bidding was dull.

Death of Hon. Leo Hayden.

HON. LEO HAYDEN who has been gradually growing weaker for a long time, was thought to be dying yesterday. He has been reduced almost to a mere skeleton and looks little like he did a few years ago.

LATER.—He died about 8:30 last night, aged 78 years. A full history of his life will be given in our next.

DANVILLE, BOYLE COUNTY.

Major I. P. McGorty left Tuesday evening for Daning, New Mexico, where he will probably spend the winter.

Mr. W. H. Robinson, after a very successful season with his fine horses, has turned them on pasture in Garrard county.

Mr. H. T. Noel expects to leave next week for Ohio to buy some Holstein cattle to add to his already fine herd of that breed.

The sheriff of Boyle county summoned on Wednesday twenty citizens of Boyle entirely to go to Somerset to act as jurors in the case of James Lay, charged with murder.

L. Christine Eagleman, a little daughter of Mr. J. H. Engleman, died Tuesday evening after a protracted illness which began with flux and ended with typhoid fever. The funeral occurred Thursday evening.

Col. W. C. P. Breckinridge, of Lexington, delivered a practical speech at the Opera House Wednesday night which was characterized by the elegance and ability which mark all the efforts of that gentleman. He spoke about two hours and was listened to with the closest attention.

Several young ladies of Danville have organized a "Cooking Club" and have issued invitations to the first meeting to be held Friday evening. An ungrateful young man who received one of the invitations remarked that there would be a great many premature deaths for the first few years of the cooking.

Mr. Elijah Davine and Miss Martha Hatcher obtained license to marry on the 1st inst., and Mr. J. D. Tillet and Miss E. G. Moore and Mr. Wm. L. Hayden and Miss Kate Hooper on the 25th. In the case of the first named couple Mr. Davine was not over 16 years old and the lady, we hope she will pardon us and our informants about the court house) was at least three times that old.

The voting population of the United States is about 11,000,000.

A dastardly attempt was made to wreck the train bearing Gen. Logan, near Knoxville, Ill., yesterday.

Snow fell in various parts of Ontario this morning. At Brussels there were six inches. It is still snowing.

A disgraceful dog fight came off on the Indiana side near Louisville Tuesday, in which a Cincinnati dog killed his Louisville antagonist. It was one of the most cruel exhibitions ever witnessed, but the sports enjoyed it. About $10,000 in bets were on the result.

How He Got a Position.

"I applied for a position in a banking house in Wall street six months ago, and although I proved my competency they would not take me. I had been down on my luck and looked old and shabby. An idea struck me. I got up a new growth of hair with Parker's Hair Balm, raised a decent suit of clothes, applied again, and they took me in a minute." So writes a clerk with $2,000 salary. The moral is plain. Parker's Hair Balm gives a person a new face.

NEW ADVERTISEMENTS.

STRAYED OR STOLEN!

From Hustonsville, on the night of October 17th, an IRON GREY HORSE, 15 1/2 hands high, three years old next Spring, nose covered with small warts. I will give a suitable reward for his delivery to me at Middleburg, Ky., or for any information leading to his recovery.
